

From: Smith, Monica
To: Fife, Greg
Cc: Smalley, Bryant; Webster, Susan; Foster, Althea; Brescia, Nicolas; Martin, John; Loesel, Matthew
Subject: Re: Hotline Heads Up
Date: Tuesday, August 29, 2017 8:37:24 PM

Greg - John and Nic are standing up an ER team and will be able to respond out of Corpus Christi tomorrow. If you have any Harvey related calls that are in the Corpus area, please contact John or Nic.

Sent from my iPhone

On Aug 29, 2017, at 7:00 PM, Fife, Greg <fife.greg@epa.gov> wrote:

A small barrage of calls regarding tanks tipped over in the flood waters and no contents remain. And no sign of the spilled oil.

Two from Cuero, (connoco Phillips), one from Gonzalez, TX, (Hunt Oil) and the other is an Entergy transformer in Splendora.

Each of the oil tanks has capacity of 200 to more than 300 BBLs each. Transformer, 210 gallons.

<NRC 1188748.pdf>

<NRC 1188749.pdf>

<NRC 1188751.pdf>

<NRC 1188753.pdf>